Leaf Modifications

- Bracts – colored
- Bracts – leafy green
- Carnivorous leaves
- Leaf tendrils
- Spiny leaves
- Spiny stipules
- Succulent leaves
Bracts – coloured (associated with inflorescences, e.g. poinsettia, bougainvillea, calla lily)
Bracts – green (as part of an inflorescence – e.g. mum, lily)

Modifications – Leaf
Bulb - fleshy scale leaves (e.g. lily, daffodil, onion)

some resources include these as a below-ground stem modifications (basal plate)
Carnivorous leaf (e.g. Venus flytrap)

Modifications – Leaf

© KPU.ca/Hort
Leaf tendrils (e.g. vetch, clematis, pea)

Modifications – Leaf

© KPU.ca/Hort
Spiny leaves (e.g. cactus, mahonia, barberry, holly, thistle)

Modifications – Leaf

© KPU.ca/Hort
Spiny stipules (e.g. evergreen barberry, deciduous barberry, black locust tree)

Modifications – Leaf

© KPU.ca/Hort
Succulent leaves (e.g. jade plant, sedum)

Modifications – Leaf